FACING THE CHALLENGE

An estimated one-third of applications are falsified. Eight to twelve percent of individuals have undesirable convictions. Five percent of individuals use illegal drugs or abuse alcohol.

For most organizations, when it comes to both screening and drug and alcohol testing, the challenges and frustrations are centered on turnaround time. You need to quickly get people through your recruitment process. Or they go to a competitor.

RANDISI & ASSOCIATES PROVIDES SOLUTIONS...

Web-enabled technology allows individuals to complete information online, reducing the need for paper.

Employment verifications delivered using customized call-back numbers for faster reporting and more accurate recordkeeping.

Court-runner companies with an understanding of local courts reduce costs and provides quicker, more accurate results.
