15 TONY NUNLEY, an individual and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Case No. 22-1255

Plaintiff,

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF CLASS ACTION

VS.

Date Action Filed: May 11, 2022

18 CARDINAL LOGISTICS
19 MANAGEMENT CORPORATION, a 20 North Carolina corporation; and ROBERT SHEERIN, an individual; and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive,

Defendants.

1 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1332, 1367, 1441, 1446, and 1453, Defendant
 2 Cardinal Logistics Management Corporation (“Defendant” or “Cardinal”) hereby 3 timely removes Case No. CIVSB2210430 from the Superior Court of the State of 4 California, County of San Bernardino to the United States District Court for the 5 Central District of California, for further proceedings, reserving any and all
 6 defenses. As grounds for removal, Defendant respectfully states as follows:

7 I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

8 1. On or about May 11, 2022, Plaintiff Tony Nunley (“Plaintiff”) filed a 9 putative class action complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California, 10 County of San Bernardino, captioned “Tony Nunley, an individual and on behalf of 11 all others similarly situated vs. Cardinal Logistics Management Corporation, a 12 North Carolina corporation; Robert Sheerin, an individual; and DOES 1 through 13 100, inclusive” (the “Complaint”), which was assigned Case Number 14 CIVSB2210430 (the “State Court Action”). See Summons and Compl. attached as 15 Exhibit 1 hereto.

16 2. On June 20, 2022, Plaintiff served the Complaint in the State Court
 17 Action on Cardinal. See Notice of Service of Process for Compl. attached as Exhibit
 18 2 hereto. As of the date of filing, it is Cardinal’s understanding that Plaintiff has not 19 served Robert Sheerin (“Mr. Sheerin”).

20 3. In the Complaint, Plaintiff alleges, among other things, that Cardinal
 21 violated (i) the Fair Credit Reporting Act (“FCRA”); (ii) the California 22 Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (“ICRAA”); and (iii) the 23 California Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act (“CCRAA”) by allegedly not 24 providing legally compliant disclosure and authorization forms to Plaintiff as part 25 of the employment application process.

26 4. Plaintiff includes Mr. Sheerin as a defendant, though the only factual
 27 allegation made against him is that he is an Operations Manager for Cardinal.
 28 Compl. ¶ 5. Plaintiff makes no allegation that Mr. Sheerin made any policy relevant

1 to the claims at issue or participated in Mr. Sheerin's employment application
 2 process with Cardinal in any way, let alone that he had anything to do with Cardinal 3 supposedly not providing legally compliant disclosure and authorization forms to 4 Plaintiff as part of the employment application process. Cardinal thus maintains that 5 Mr. Sheerin is a sham defendant.

6 5. Plaintiff also seeks to certify a putative class of "all current, former,
 7 and prospective employees of Defendants who applied for a job with Defendants
 8 and a background check was performed beginning five (5) years preceding the filing
 9 of Plaintiff's complaint up until the date that final judgment is entered in this 10 action." Id. at ¶ 16.

11 6. Based on the claims alleged in the Complaint in the State Court Action, 12 Plaintiff seeks, on behalf of himself and the putative class, an assortment of alleged 13 damages, including, but not limited to, punitive damages, statutory penalties, 14 declaratory relief, interest, attorney fees, and costs. Id. at Prayer for Relief.

15 II. ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

16 7. This Court has jurisdiction over this case pursuant to both 28 U.S.C. § 17 1331 (i.e., federal question jurisdiction) and § 1332 (diversity jurisdiction) as 18 amended by the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005 ("CAFA"), 28 U.S.C.
 19 §§ 1332(d), 1453 and 1711-1715. As explained in greater detail below, removal to 20 this Court and jurisdiction in this Court are proper because the Complaint raises a 21 federal question. In addition, this action can be removed under CAFA because: (i) 22 at least one plaintiff and one defendant are citizens of different states; (ii) the 23 number of members of the proposed putative class is at least 100; and (iii) the 24 amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

25 A. This Court Has Federal Question Jurisdiction Over Plaintiff's 26 FCRA Claims and Supplemental Jurisdiction Over His State Law 27 Claims

28 8. The case is removable pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1367 and

1 1441(b). Section 1441(b) provides in relevant part:

2 Any civil action of which the district courts have original 3 jurisdiction founded on a claim or right arising under the 4 Constitution, treaties or laws of the United States shall be 5 removable without regard to the citizenship or residence
 6 of the parties.

7 9. A case “arises under” federal law if a plaintiff’s “well-pleaded 8 complaint establishes either that federal law creates the cause of action” or that the 9 plaintiff’s “right to relief under state law requires resolution of a substantial 10 question of federal law in dispute between the parties.” Franchise Tax Bd. v. Constr.
Laborers Vacation Trust for S. Cal., 463 U.S. 1, 13 (1983).

11 10. This Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s Complaint because it is 12 founded on claims arising under federal law, specifically the Fair Credit Reporting 13 Act (“FCRA”), 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. The FCRA is a federal law that “provides 14 a private right of action against businesses that use consumer reports but fail to 15 comply” with the statute’s notice and authorization requirements. Safeco Ins. Co.
of Am. v. Burr, 551 U.S. 47, 53 (2007). Consequently, this Court has original 16 jurisdiction to address the federal questions raised by Plaintiff’s Complaint. 28
 17 U.S.C. § 1331.

18 11. Moreover, this Court is authorized to exercise supplemental 19 jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s state law claims (i.e., his second and third causes of 20 action) under 28 U.S.C. § 1337. “[I]n any civil action of which the district courts
 21 have original jurisdiction, the district courts shall have supplemental jurisdiction 22 over all other claims that are so related to claims in the action within such original 23 jurisdiction that they form part of the same case or controversy.” Id. at subs. (a).
 24 Because Plaintiff’s state law claims for alleged violations of ICRAA and CCRAA
 25 arise out of the same or virtually identical conduct as the FCRA claim, they clearly 26 form part of the same case or controversy. See, e.g., Compl. ¶¶ 11-15, 29-32, 39-
 27 42, and 51-53. In fact, in Paragraph 21 of the Complaint, Plaintiff alleges that there 28 are the same purported common questions regarding each of the three statutes (i.e.,

1 whether Defendants allegedly failed “to include the proper disclosures and 2 authorizations required by law”). Id. at ¶ 21(a)-(c). Consequently, the state law
 3 claims are intrinsically related to the FCRA claim and provide the Court with 4 supplemental jurisdiction.¹

5 B. Diversity Jurisdiction Exists Due to CAFA

6 12. The United States Supreme Court clarified the standards for a notice
 7 of removal under CAFA in 2014. Specifically, in Dart Cherokee Basin Operating 8 Co. v. Owens, 574 U.S. 81, 87 (2014), the Supreme Court held that courts must 9 apply the same liberal rules to removal allegations as to other matters of pleading.
 10 The Supreme Court also held that no presumption against removal exists under 11 CAFA, which was enacted to facilitate adjudication of certain putative class actions 12 in federal court. Id.

13 1. The Diversity of Citizenship Requirement Is Satisfied

14 13. Plaintiff is and was at the time of the commencement of the State Court
 15 Action, a citizen of California. See Compl. ¶ 2.

16 14. Cardinal was at the time of the commencement of the State Court 17 Action, and continues to this day to be, a North Carolina corporation with its 18 principal place of business in Concord, North Carolina. See, e.g., Hertz Corp. v.
 19 Friend, 559 U.S. 77, 92-93 (2010) (“We conclude that ‘principal place of business’
 20 is best read as referring to the place where a corporation’s officers direct, control,
 21 and coordinate the corporation’s activities. It is the place that Courts of Appeals 22 have called the corporation’s ‘nerve center.’ And in practice it should normally be 23 the place where the corporation maintains its headquarters—provided that the 24 headquarters is the actual center of direction, control, and coordination”).

25 15. Plaintiff’s inclusion of Mr. Sheerin as a defendant is a sham and cannot 26 defeat removal. It is well-settled that “fraudulently joined defendants will not defeat

28 1 As discussed below, the Court also has original jurisdiction over Plaintiff’s state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d) (i.e., the CAFA).

1 removal on diversity grounds. Ritchey v. Upjohn Drug Co., 139 F.3d 1313, 1318
 2 (9th Cir. 1998). “If the plaintiff fails to state a cause of action against a resident 3 defendant, and the failure is obvious according to the settled rules of the state, the 4 joinder of the resident defendant is fraudulent.” McCabe v. General Foods Corp., 5 811 F.2d 1336, 1339 (9th Cir.1987). In other words, a joinder is fraudulent if “there
 6 [is] no real intention to get a joint judgment, and ... there [is] no colorable ground
 7 for so claiming.” Lewis v. Time Inc., 83 F.R.D. 455, 460 (E.D. Cal. 1979) (citing
 8 Parks v. New York Times Co., 308 F.2d 474, 478 (5th Cir. 1962). “The defendant 9 seeking removal to the federal court is entitled to present the facts showing the 10 joinder to be fraudulent.” Id.

11 16. There is no possibility that Plaintiff can prove a cause of action against 12 Mr. Sheerin. Although the caption page lists Mr. Sheerin as a defendant and 13 includes him in the definition of “Defendants”, the Complaint itself asserts only a 14 single factual allegation against him. See generally, Compl. Indeed, Mr. Sheerin is 15 referenced in the Complaint in only paragraphs detailing general factual
 16 background. Id. at ¶¶ 1, 5, 7. The only factual allegation pertaining to Mr. Sheerin 17 is that he was an Operations Manager for Cardinal—an immaterial point based on 18 the causes of action asserted. Id. at ¶ 5. Accordingly, there are no substantive 19 allegations in the Complaint that support any cause of action against Mr. Sheerin.

20 17. Moreover, there is no way Mr. Sheerin could be personally liable under 21 FCRA, ICRAA, or CCRAA.

22 18. The complete lack of any factual allegations asserted against Mr.
 23 Sheerin—together with the fact that Plaintiff has not bothered to serve him as far as 24 Cardinal is aware—demonstrate that Plaintiff has “no real intention” of making Mr.
 25 Sheerin a part of the action, but has instead fraudulently included him merely as a 26 ploy to avoid removal. See Brown v. Allstate Ins. Co., 17 F. Supp. 2d 1134, 1137
 27 (S.D. Cal. 1998) (finding individual California-resident defendants were 28 fraudulently joined where individual defendants were named in the caption and in

1 the headings of the causes of action, but no material allegations against those
 2 defendants were pled.)²

3 19. Because Plaintiff is a citizen of California, Cardinal is a citizen of 4 North Carolina, and Mr. Sheerin is fraudulently joined, the diversity requirement of 5 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A) is satisfied.

6 2. The Alleged Putative Class Includes At Least 100 Members

7 20. Plaintiff seeks to certify a class of “all current, former, and prospective
 8 employees of Defendants who applied for a job with Defendants and a background
 9 check was performed beginning five (5) years preceding the filing of Plaintiff’s
 10 complaint up until the date that final judgment is entered in this action.” Compl. ¶ 11 16.

12 21. Cardinal disputes Plaintiff’s allegations of wrongdoing and also 13 disputes that any class could ever be certified. Nevertheless, based on information
 14 and belief and Cardinal’s review of its internal employment data, Cardinal asserts 15 that there are in excess of 5,000 individuals who fall within the class definition.

16 22. Thus, the number of members of Plaintiff’s alleged putative class is at 17 least 100.

18 3. The Amount In Controversy Exceeds $5,000,000

19 23. The Supreme Court clarified in 2014 that a notice of removal need only 20 include a plausible allegation that the amount in controversy exceeds the 21 jurisdictional threshold and need not include evidentiary submissions. Dart
 22

23 2 Additionally, for the purposes of removal based on diversity of citizenship, the 24 citizenship of defendants sued under fictitious names is disregarded. 28 U.S.C. § 25 1441(b)(1) (“In determining whether a civil action is removable on the basis of the 26 jurisdiction under [] 28 U.S.C. §] 1332(a), the citizenship of defendants sued under 27 fictitious names shall be disregarded”); see, e.g., Kruso v. Int’l Tel. & Telegraph 28 Corp., 872 F. 2d 1416, 1424 (9th Cir. 1989) (holding that the naming of Doe defendants cannot defeat diversity jurisdiction). Thus, the citizenship of any alleged Doe defendants is immaterial for purposes of determining whether complete diversity exists under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d).

1 Cherokee, 574 U.S. at 87 (“Congress, by borrowing the familiar ‘short and plain
2 statement’ standard from Rule 8(a), intended to ‘simplify the “pleading”
3 requirements for removal’ and to clarify that courts should ‘apply the same liberal 4 rules [to removal allegations] that are applied to other matters of pleading.’”); see
5 also Ibarra v. Manheim Investments, Inc., 775 F.3d 1193, 1195 (9th Cir. 2015)
6 (“[A] removing party must initially file a notice of removal that includes ‘a plausible
7 allegation that the amount in controversy exceeds the jurisdictional threshold.’”)
8 (quoting Dart Cherokee). Thus, a defendant’s amount in controversy allegation 9 should be accepted when not contested by a plaintiff or questioned by the court.
10 Dart Cherokee, 574 U.S. at 87. If a plaintiff does contest the allegation, both sides
11 must submit proof and the court will decide, by a preponderance of the evidence, 12 whether the amount in controversy requirement has been satisfied. Id. at 88-89.

13 24. Defendant denies that this action is appropriate for class treatment or 14 that Defendant is liable for Plaintiff's claims. Nevertheless, Defendant has 15 calculated the amount in controversy for purposes of this notice by taking Plaintiff's
16 allegations in the Complaint at face value in aggregating claims of individual class 17 members pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(6). The amount in controversy on 18 Plaintiff's claims exceeds $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

(a) FCRA Statutory Damages

20 25. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that Cardinal “failed to 21 comply with the requirements under the FCRA because they, among other things, 22 included superfluous information within the disclosure ..., buried the disclosure 23 with small font ..., failed to obtain proper authorization before procuring a 24 consumer report..., included a liability waiver ..., included a purported 25 authorization for third parties to release information ..., and [] fail[ed] to include a 26 summary of ... rights.” Compl. ¶ 31.

27 26. Plaintiff further alleges on information and belief that Cardinal's
28 "violation of the FCRA were willful." Id. at ¶ 32.

1 27. 15 U.S.C. § 1681n(a) provides that civil liability under the FCRA
 2 consists of (1) a consumer's actual damages or statutory damages of "not less than 3 $100 and not more than $1,000, (2) punitive damages, and (3) attorneys' fees.

4 28. The Ninth Circuit has in the past few years made it clear that "the 5 amount in controversy reflects the maximum recovery the plaintiff could reasonably
 6 recover." Arias v. Residence Inn by Marriott, 936 F.3d 920, 927 (9th Cir. 2019)
 7 (citing Chavez v. JPMorgan Chase & Co., 888 F.3d 413, 417 (9th Cir. 2018)
 8 (emphasis in original)). For this reason, in assessing amounts in controversy based 9 on a range of statutory penalties, courts should employ the maximum penalty and 10 have consistently done so since Arias and Chavez were issued. See, e.g., Gonzalez
 11 v. Comenity Cap. Bank, No. 119CV00342AWIEPG, 2019 WL 5304924, at *5 (E.D.
 12 Cal. Oct. 21, 2019); Faircloth v. AR Res., Inc., No. 19-CV-05830-JCS, 2020 WL
 13 2747781, at *2-3 (N.D. Cal. May 27, 2020); Stoff v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No.
 14 321CV00793BENKSC, 2021 WL 5449036, at *6 (S.D. Cal. Nov. 22, 2021); see also
 15 Rice v. Equifax Info. Servs., LLC, No. 2:09-cv-07864-PSG-EX, 2010 WL
 16 128369, at *2 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 11, 2010); Saulic v. Symantec Corp., No. 07-0610, 17 2007 WL 5074883, at *9 (C.D. Cal. Dec. 26, 2007).

18 29. Based on information and belief and Cardinal's review of its internal 19 employment data, Cardinal has had well in excess of 5,000 employees³ it hired 20 nationwide during the past five years (i.e., since May 10, 2017 through the 21 present).⁴ Plaintiff's Complaint does not appear to make any allegation regarding 22 actual damages, but does seek an award of statutory damages. See Compl. ¶ 33, 23 Prayer for Relief. Accordingly, Plaintiff's FCRA allegations put in controversy, 24

25 26 27 28 29 30
 3 These numbers do not include prospective employees or applicants who were not hired, which would only increase the total amount of individuals meeting the definition of the proposed class.

4 While Cardinal maintains that FCRA's two-year statute of limitations should govern, Plaintiff alleges that the longer five-year period for FCRA claims applies.
 Cardinal has thus gone back five years for its removal calculations.

1 $1,000 for himself and at least 4,999 other individuals, for a total of at least 2 $5,000,000 in statutory damages under FCRA.

3 30. Additionally, FCRA authorizes Plaintiff to recover attorney's fees and 4 punitive damages, which are discussed in subsections (c) and (d) below.

5 (b) CCRAA Punitive Damages

6 31. Plaintiff further alleges on information and belief that Cardinal "at 7 times, willfully violated the strict disclosure and authorization requirements under 8 the CCRAA."⁵ Compl. ¶ 53.

9 32. California Civil Code § 1785.31(a)(2) provides that consumers
 10 suffering violations of the CCRAA may seek to recover (1) the consumers' actual 11 damages, (2) "[p]unitive damages of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor 12 more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation as the court deems 13 proper[,]" and (3) "[a]ny other relief the court deems proper." California Civil Code 14 § 1785.31(d) likewise authorizes the recovery of attorney's fees.

15 33. Plaintiff's Complaint does not appear to allege any actual damages
 16 under CCRAA. However, the punitive damages Plaintiff has placed in controversy
 17 under CCRAA must be added to the $5 million in alleged FCRA statutory damages
 18 to properly calculate the amount in controversy. Specifically, based on information
 19 and belief and Cardinal's review of its internal employment data, Cardinal has hired 20 in excess of 250 employees⁶ who were California residents during the past two 21

 23 5 Plaintiff also alleges on information and belief that Cardinal "at times, willfully 24 violated the strict disclosure and authorization requirements under [ICRAA]." Compl. ¶ 44.
 25 California Civil Code § 1786.50 provides that civil liability for willful violation of the ICRAA
 26 consists of (1) the consumers' actual damages or $10,000 unless a class action is alleged, (2)
 27 punitive damages, and (3) attorney's fees. Yet, Plaintiff does not appear to allege any actual 28 damages under ICRAA and seeks to bring a class action under that statute, which means the $10,000 statutory damages component of ICRAA has no application.

6 These numbers do not include prospective employees or applicants who were California residents and not hired by Cardinal during the past two years.

1 years (i.e., since May 10, 2020 through the present).⁷ Plaintiff's CCRAA
2 allegations thus put in controversy, $5,000 for himself and at least 249 other
3 individuals, for a total of $1,250,000 more in controversy. When this punitive
4 damage amount is combined with the FCRA statutory damages, there are at least 5 $6,250,000 in damages in controversy according to Plaintiff's Complaint.

6 34. Additionally, CCRAA authorizes attorney's fees, which are discussed 7 in subsection (c) below.

(c) Attorney Fees Under FCRA and CCRAA

9 35. Attorney fees are also included in the amount in controversy if the 10 underlying statute authorizes their award (which is the case here for at least two 11 reasons). Galt G/S v. JSS Scandinavia, 142 F.3d 1150, 1155-56 (9th Cir. 1998) 12 (attorney fees award may be included in the amount in controversy when an 13 underlying statute authorizes their award). Indeed, Plaintiff seeks to recover
14 attorney's fees in this case under both the FCRA and CCRAA. See Compl. at Prayer
15 for Relief.

16 36. In class action cases within California, prevailing plaintiffs generally
17 request, and courts in the Ninth Circuit tend to award, attorney's fees in the range
18 of 25% to 33% of the overall recovery. See Vasquez v. Coast Valley Roofing, Inc., 19 266 F.R.D. 482, 491-92 (E.D. Cal. 2010) (citing to five recent wage and hour cases 20 where federal court judges approved fee awards that ranged from 30% to 33% and

22 7 The number of current and former employees/prospective applicants at Cardinal
23 who could be subject to CCRAA as well as ICRAA (which are both California 24 statutes) is much smaller than Plaintiff's purported nationwide class for FCRA 25 because ICRAA and CCRAA only apply to California residents (i.e., they do not 26 apply nationwide). The statute of limitations for Plaintiff's state law claims is also 27 two years from the date of discovery. See Cal. Civ. Code § 1785.33 (stating that 28 the statute of limitations for CCRAA is limited to two years from the date the plaintiff knew of, or should have known of, the violation of this title, but not more than seven years unless the employer materially and willfully violated the statute); see also Cal. Civ. Code § 1786.52 (stating that the statute of limitations for ICRAA claims is limited to two years from the date of discovery).

1 similarly approving percentage of the fund award of 33% to class counsel); Romero
 2 v. Producers Dairy Foods, Inc., 2007 WL 3492841, at *1-4 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 14, 3 2007) (approving award of 33% of common fund); McCrary v. Elations Company,
 4 LLC, 2016 WL 769703, at 10-11 (C.D. Cal., 2016) (approving award of 26.82%
 5 of total settlement amount). It is therefore anticipated that Plaintiff's attorneys will 6 seek at least 25% of any amounts recovered as awardable attorney's fees.

7 37. Accordingly, it is anticipated that Plaintiff's attorneys may seek 8 $1,250,000 (i.e., 0.25 X $5,000,000) or more in attorneys' fees in this action based 9 on the FCRA statutory damages, and $312,500 (i.e. 0.25 X $1,250,000) or more in 10 attorneys' fees in this action based on the CCRAA punitive damages. When these 11 figures are all added together (i.e., the $5 million in FCRA statutory damages plus 12 $1,250,000 in CCRAA punitive damages plus $1,562,500 in attorney's fees), the 13 total amount in controversy in this case is at least $7,812,500.

14 (d) Punitive Damages Under FCRA

15 38. In addition to the statutorily-set punitive damages already calculated 16 under CCRAA, FCRA also authorizes punitive damages in the court's discretion.
 17 While such damages must be reasonable to any harm purportedly caused and not 18 excessive (see, e.g., State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co. v. Campbell, 538 U.S. 408 19 (2003); BMW of North America, Inc. v. Gore, 517 U.S. 559 (1996)), Plaintiff has 20 sought additional discretionary punitive damages under FCRA as part of his 21 Complaint. “[T]he amount of punitive damages may be established based on jury 22 verdicts in cases involving analogous facts.” Rodriguez v. Home Depot U.S.A., Inc., 23 2016 WL 3902838 at *6 (N.D. Cal. July 19, 2016). “The fact that the cited cases 24 involve distinguishable facts is not dispositive, as long as the jury verdicts in the 25 cited cases amply demonstrate the potential for large punitive damage awards in 26 similar types of cases.” Id.

27 39. The $7,812,500 figure calculated above is based solely on the amount 28 in controversy on the FCRA statutory damages and CCRAA punitive damages plus

1 attorneys' fees. It does not include the amounts in controversy on the discretionary 2 punitive damages potentially recoverable under FCRA. Therefore, the total amount 3 in controversy exceeds $7,812,500.

4 III. REMOVAL IS TIMELY AND PROPER

5 40. This Notice of Removal is timely pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1446(b)
 6 and 1453(b) as it has been filed within thirty (30) days of the date (i.e., June 20, 7 2022) on which service of the State Court Action on Cardinal was complete.
 8 Indeed, under the applicable rules, Defendant has up to and including July 20, 2022
 9 to timely remove this matter to federal court and it has satisfied that obligation.

10 41. Because Mr. Sheerin has not been served (and in any event is a sham 11 defendant) and Cardinal is the only other existing named defendant in this action, 12 no other party's consent to this removal is required.⁸ See 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b)(2)(A).

13 42. Pursuant to section 1446(a) of title 28, removal is also made to the 14 Central District of California, as the district court embracing the place where the 15 State Court Action is pending. See 28 U.S.C. § 84(d).

16 43. Copies of the docket sheet, and all process, pleadings, and orders filed 17 or served upon Cardinal are attached and incorporated by reference as Exhibit 3
 18 (docket sheet) and Exhibit 4 (process, pleadings, and orders) hereto.

19 44. Cardinal reserves the right to amend or supplement this Notice of 20 Removal, including the right to submit evidentiary declarations supporting and/or 21 buttressing the amount in controversy should Plaintiff attempt to remand the action
 22 for any reason or if the Court has any questions. Cardinal further reserves all 23 defenses it has to Plaintiff's claims. Cardinals disputes Plaintiff's claims in their 24 entirety and contends only that the nature of Plaintiff's purported claims, as pled, 25 demonstrates that removal is proper.

26 45. Cardinal is providing Plaintiff, by and through their counsel, written 27

28 8 If Mr. Sheerin were to be served, it is Cardinal's understanding that he would consent to the removal of this action to federal court.

1 notice of the filing of this Notice of Removal and all other papers as required by 2 section 1446(d) of title 28. Further, Cardinal is filing a copy of this Notice of 3 Removal and all related papers with the Clerk of the Superior Court of the State of 4 California, County of San Bernardino where the State Court Action is currently 5 pending.

6 IV. PRAYER

7 Wherefore, Cardinal, requests that the above-captioned action now pending
8 against it in the Superior Court of California, County of San Bernardino, be 9 removed to this Court.

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/seithelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/seithelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE! The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case.

AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la Información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto al deseas que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte lo podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más aviso.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que hable a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

By

1 Plaintiff Tony Nunley, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, alleges as 2 follows:

3 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. This is a Class Action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382 against 6 Cardinal Logistics Management Corporation, a North Carolina corporation, and any of its
7 respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies (“Cardinal”), and Robert Sheerin (“Sheerin” and 8 collectively with DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”) on behalf of
9 Plaintiff and all other current, former, or prospective employees of Defendants (“Class Members”)
10 for, among other things, alleged violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (“FCRA”) and similar 11 California laws.

12 PARTIES

13 A. Plaintiff

14 2. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein,
15 Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff
16 with duties that included, but were not limited to, driving and delivering appliances. Plaintiff
17 applied for work with Defendants in or around February of 2021 and stopped working for 18 Defendants in or around October of 2021.

19 3. Plaintiff is a natural person, and at all times relevant to this Complaint was a
20 “consumer” as defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act, at 15 U.S.C. § 1681a, the Investigative
21 Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (“ICRAA”), at Civ. Code § 1786.2(b) and the Consumer
22 Credit Reporting Agencies Act (“CCRAA”) at Civ. Code §1785.3(b).

23 B. Defendants

24 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Cardinal is, and 25 at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the 26 laws of the State of North Carolina and doing business in the County of San Bernardino, State of 27 California. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Cardinal
28 provided Plaintiff with a purported background check disclosure and authorization forms and/or

1 requested, among other things, Plaintiff and other Class Members' consumer reports.

2 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Sheerin
3 is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as an
4 Operations Manager for Cardinal, and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below

5 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants are “persons” as those terms are 6 defined under the FCRA at 15 U.S.C. § 1681a(b), under the ICRAA at Civ. Code § 1786.2(a) and
7 under the CCRAA at Civ. Code § 1785.3(j).

8 7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 9 otherwise, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to
10 Plaintiff, who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure
11 section 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the 12 defendants designated herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts
13 referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true
14 names and capacities of the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities
15 become known. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant
16 acted in all respects pertinent to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a
17 joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each
18 defendant are legally attributable to the other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter,
19 reference is made to "Defendants," it shall include Caridinal and any of their parent, subsidiary, or 20 affiliated companies within the State of California, as well as Sheerin and DOES 1 through 100
21 identified herein.

JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

23 8. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant
24 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate 25 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 26 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 27 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the 28 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant

1 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded,
2 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the
3 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

4 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' policies regarding the 5 disclosures, authorizations, background checks, and consumer reports mentioned herein were done
6 for the benefit of all Defendants, and at times, expressly named such Defendants in said
7 disclosures, authorizations, background checks, and consumer reports. As a result of the 8 aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 9 Defendants, and each of them, are jointly liable for the violations that form the basis of this 10 complaint.

11 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 10. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code
13 of Civil Procedure section 410.10. On information and belief, the defendants or some of them
14 reside in San Bernardino County. Defendant Cardinal Logistics Management Corporation is, and 15 at all times mentioned in this complaint has been, a North Carolina corporation, authorized to do
16 business in California, with no designated principal place of business in California identified in its 17 statement filed with the Secretary of State. As such, venue is proper in San Bernadino County
18 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 395.

19 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

20 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that, without 21 limitation, in or about January of 2021 Defendants purported to provide consumer report
22 disclosures and requested from Plaintiff authorization(s) to procure consumer reports and
23 background checks for purposes of employment.

24 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that, without limitation,
25 in approximately July of 2019 and again in or about February of 2020, Defendants procured a
26 consumer report about Plaintiff as part of an employment background screening without providing 27 Plaintiff with the proper disclosures and without proper authorization in compliance with the law.
28 ///

1 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants did not
2 provide legally compliant disclosure and authorization forms to Plaintiff and Class Members as
3 they contained, without limitation, a “clear and conspicuous” disclosure, in a document that
4 consists solely of the disclosure, that “clearly and accurately” disclosed that a consumer report
5 may be obtained for employment purposes; that was authorized in writing the procurement of the 6 report, in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681b(b)(2)(A) and 1681d(a). Specifically, Plaintiff is
7 informed and believes the disclosures did not comply as a result of, without limitation: including 8 superfluous information within the disclosure, such as, among other things, identifying 9 information of a third party consumer reporting agency, which was not the reporting agency used
10 to obtain or procure the consumer report for Plaintiff and Class Members, and extraneous
11 information relating to various state disclosure requirements; burying the disclosures with small 12 font in a lengthy employment package with dense text that contains extraneous information;
13 failing to obtain proper authorization before procuring a consumer report, including by either
14 obtaining consumer reports without authorization or when such authorization had expired;
15 including a liability waiver in the same document as the disclosure before procuring a consumer
16 report; including a purported authorization for third parties to release information about Plaintiff
17 and other Class Members to Defendant, that is different from an authorization for the Defendant to 18 procure a consumer report; and by failing to provide, before a consumer report was obtained, a
19 summary of Plaintiff and Class Members’ rights under 15 U.S.C. § 1681m(a)(3), among other 20 things.

21 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants did not
22 provide legally compliant disclosure and authorization forms to Plaintiff and Class Members as a
23 result of, without limitation, Defendants failing to make a “clear and conspicuous” disclosure in 24 writing to Plaintiff and Class Members at any time before the report is or was procured or caused
25 to be made in a document that consists solely of the disclosure, that: identified the name, address,
26 and telephone number of the investigative consumer reporting agency conducting the investigation
27 in violation of Civ. Code § 1786.16; notified Plaintiff and Class Members in writing of the nature
28 and scope of the investigation requested, including a summary of the provisions of Civ. Code §

1 1786.22; and notified Plaintiff and Class Members of the internet web site of the investigative
2 consumer reporting agency, or, if the agency had no internet web site address, the telephone
3 number of the agency where Plaintiff and Class Members may find information about the
4 investigative reporting agency's privacy practices, including whether Plaintiff and Class
5 Member's personal information will be sent outside of the United States or its territories and
6 information that complies with subdivision (d) of Section 1786.22, among other things.

7 15. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that
8 Defendants routinely acquire consumer, investigative and/or consumer credit reports (referred to 9 collectively as "background checks") to conduct background checks as described herein on 10 Plaintiff and other prospective, current and former employees and use information from the 11 background checks without providing proper disclosures and obtaining proper authorization in 12 compliance with the law, including Civil Code § 1785.1, et seq. (the "Consumer Credit Reporting
13 Agencies Act" or the "CCRAA").

14 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15 16. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of Plaintiff and all others similarly situated, as 16 a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class
17 of all current, former, and prospective employees of Defendants who applied for a job with 18 Defendants and a background check was performed beginning five (5) years preceding the filing
19 of Plaintiff's complaint up until the date that final judgment is entered in this action (collectively
20 referred to as "Class Members").

21 17. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court rule 3.765, subdivision
22 (b) to amend or modify the class description with greater specificity or further division into 23 subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

24 18. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
25 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined
26 community of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily ascertainable.

27 ///

28 ///

1 A. Numerosity

2 19. The potential Class Members as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the
3 members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class Members has not been
4 determined yet, Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are at least seventy-five (75) Class
5 Members within the State of California alone.

6 20. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases
7 this number substantially. Plaintiff alleges Defendants' employment records would provide 8 information as to the number and location of all Class Members. Joinder of all members of the 9 proposed Class is not practicable.

10 B. Commonality

11 21. There are questions of law and fact common to Class Members. These common 12 questions include, but are not limited to:

- 13 (a) Whether Defendants failed to comply with the requirements of the FCRA
14 under 15 U.S.C. § 1681, et seq., including by failing to include the proper
15 disclosures and proper authorizations required by law?
- 16 (b) Whether Defendants failed to comply with the requirements of the ICRAA
17 under California Civil Code section 1786, et seq., including by failing to 18 include the proper disclosures and proper authorizations required by law?
- 19 (c) Whether Defendants failed to comply with the requirements of the 20 Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act under California Civil Code
21 section 1785.1, et seq., including by failing to include the proper disclosures
22 and proper authorizations required by law?
- 23 (d) Whether Defendants willfully failed to comply with the FCRA?

24 C. Typicality

25 22. The claims of Plaintiff herein alleged are typical of those claims which could be
26 alleged by any Class Members, and the relief sought is typical of the relief which would be sought
27 by each Class Member in separate actions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon
28 alleges that Defendants had and/or have a policy or practice which resulted in Defendants failing

1 to comply with the FCRA, ICRAA, and the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act as alleged
2 herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

4 23. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Class
5 Members. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating class
6 actions and has no interests adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of the absent Class
7 Members.

E. Superiority of Class Action

9 24. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient
10 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and 11 questions of law and fact common to Class Members predominate over any questions affecting 12 only individual Class Members. Class Members, as further described therein, have been subjected 13 to Defendants' illegal policy and/or practices as a result of Defendants' alleged improper
14 disclosures and authorizations.

15 25. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated to litigate their claims in a
16 manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is 17 unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that 18 would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act – Against All Defendants)

21 26. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 22 the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth hereat.

23 27. Defendants are “persons” as defined by section 1681a(b) of the FCRA;

24 28. Plaintiff and Class Members are “consumers” within the meaning of Section
25 1681a(c) of the FCRA because they are “individuals.”

26 29. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. section 1681b(b)(2)(A), an employer may not procure, or 27 cause to be procured, consumer reports for employment purposes without providing the 28 [employee] with “a clear and conspicuous disclosure... made in writing... in a document that

1 consists solely of the disclosure that a consumer report may be obtained for employment
2 purposes" and which the consumer has "authorized in writing" the procurement of the report by
3 that person.

4 30. 15 U.S.C. section 1681d(a)(1)(B) further provides that an employer may not
5 procure or cause to be prepared an investigative consumer report on any consumer unless it is
6 "clearly and accurately disclosed to the [employee] that an investigative consumer report... may
7 be made and such disclosure includes a statement informing the consumer of his right to request
8 the additional disclosures provided for under subsection (b) of this section and the written 9 summary of the rights of the consumer prepared pursuant to section 1681g(c) of this title."

10 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 11 relevant time periods alleged herein, Defendants have, at times, obtained and used information in 12 consumer reports to conduct background checks on prospective and existing employees which 13 failed to comply with the requirements under the FCRA because they, among other things,
14 included superfluous information within the disclosure, such as, without limitation, identifying
15 information of a third party consumer reporting agency, which was not the reporting agency used
16 to obtain or procure the consumer report for Plaintiff and Class Members, and extraneous
17 information relating to various state disclosure requirements; buried the disclosures with small
18 font in a lengthy employment package with dense text that contains extraneous information; failed
19 to obtain proper authorization before procuring a consumer report, including by either obtaining 20 consumer reports without authorization or when such authorization had expired; included a
21 liability waiver in the same document as the disclosure before procuring a consumer report;
22 including a purported authorization for third parties to release information about Plaintiff and
23 other Class Members to Defendant, that is different from an authorization for the Defendant to 24 procure a consumer report; and by failing to, before a consumer report was obtained, include a
25 summary of Plaintiff and Class Members' rights under 15 U.S.C. § 1681m(a)(3), among other 26 things.

27 ///

28 ///

1 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
2 violations of the FCRA were willful. Defendant knew or should have known about its obligations
3 under the FCRA as a result of the plain language of the statutes.

4 33. Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members, without limitation, seek some
5 of the statutory remedies available under the FCRA.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Viol. of the Cal. Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act – Against All Defendants)

8 34. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 9 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

10 35. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were current, former, and 11 prospective employees of Defendants covered by the California Investigative Consumer Reporting
12 Agencies Act, California Civil Code section 1786 et seq. (“ICRAA”).

13 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff and Class Members are 14 "consumers" within the meaning Section 1786.2(b) of the ICRAA, because they are "individuals."

15 37. Section 1786.2(c) of the ICRAA defines an “investigative consumer report” as “a 16 consumer report in which information on a consumer's character, general reputation, personal 17 characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through any means.”

18 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants obtained background checks 19 from Plaintiff and Class Members, which qualify as an “investigative consumer report” under the 20 ICRAA.

21 39. Section 1786.16(a)(2) of the ICRAA provides, in relevant part, that “[i]f, at any 22 time, an investigative consumer report is sought for employment purposes... the person seeking 23 the investigative consumer report may procure the report, or cause the report to be made, only if
24 all of the following apply:

25 “(A) The person procuring or causing the report to be made has a permissible purpose, as defined in Section 1786.12.

27 (B) The person procuring or causing the report to be made provides a clear and 28 conspicuous disclosure in writing to the consumer at any time before the report is procured or caused to be made in a document that consists solely of the

1 disclosure..." that, among other things, an investigative report may be obtained;
2 identifies the name, address, and telephone number of the investigative consumer
3 reporting agency conducting the investigation; notifies the consumer in writing of 4 the nature of the scope of the investigation, including a summary of the provision
5 of section 1786.22; and notifies the consumer of the internet website address of 6 the investigative consumer reporting agency or the address, the telephone number
7 of the agency, where the consumer may find information about the investigative
8 reporting agency's privacy practices, including whether the consumer's personal 9 information will be sent outside of the United States or its territories and 10 information that complies with subdivision (d) of section 1786.20.

11 (C) The consumer has authorized in writing the procurement of the report.

12 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that the plain language
13 of the statute indicates that the inclusion of extraneous information in a disclosure form violates
14 the disclosure and authorization requirements of the ICRAA, because such a form would not
15 consist "solely" of the disclosure and that the notice provided be "clear and conspicuous."
16 Additionally, section 1786.16 requires that the consumer authorize in writing the procurement of 17 the report.

18 41. Plaintiff is informed and believes that during the relevant time periods alleged 19 herein, Defendants have, at times, failed to make a "clear and conspicuous" disclosure in writing
20 to Plaintiff and Class Members at any time before the report is or was procured or caused to be 21 made in a document that consists solely of the disclosure, that: identified the name, address, and
22 telephone number of the investigative consumer reporting agency conducting the investigation;
23 notified Plaintiff and Class Members in writing of the nature and scope of the investigation
24 requested, including a summary of the provisions of Civ. Code § 1786.22; and notified Plaintiff
25 and Class Members of the internet web site of the investigative consumer reporting agency, or, if 26 the agency had no internet web site address, the telephone number of the agency where Plaintiff
27 and Class Members may find information about the investigative reporting agency's privacy
28 practices, including whether Plaintiff and Class Member's personal information will be sent outside of the United States or its territories and information that complies with subdivision (d) of Section 1786.22, among other things.

29 ///

1 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes that as a result of the above, Defendants have, at
2 times, willfully violated the strict disclosure and authorization requirements under the California
3 Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act, California Civil Code section 1786, et seq.
4 (“ICRAA”).

5 43. As a result of Defendants' unlawful procurement of background reports by way of 6 its inadequate disclosures and authorizations, as set forth above, Plaintiff and Class Members have
7 been deprived of their consumer rights and prevented from making informed decisions about
8 whether to permit Defendants to obtain their personal information.

9 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes that as a result of the above, Defendants have, at 10 times, willfully violated the strict disclosure and authorization requirements under the ICRAA.

11 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants' conduct in violation of Section 1786,
12 et seq. of the ICRAA was and is willful and/or grossly negligent. Defendants acted in deliberate
13 or reckless disregard of their obligations and the rights of applicants and employees, including 14 Plaintiff and Class Members.

15 46. Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members, among other things, seek some 16 of the available remedies pursuant to, without limitation, California Civil Code section 1786.50.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act – Against All Defendants)

19 47. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 20 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

21 48. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former
22 employees of Defendants covered by the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act, California
23 Civil Code section 1785.1, et seq. (“CCRAA”).

24 49. Section 1785.3(c) of the ICRAA defines “consumer credit report” as “[a]ny written,
25 oral, or other communication or any information by a consumer credit reporting agency bearing on 26 a consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity, which is used or is expected to 27 be used, or collected in whole or in part, for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the 28 consumer's eligibility for: ... (2) employment purposes...”

1 50. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the employment background checks procured
2 by Defendants on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members qualify as consumer credit reports under
3 the CCRAA.

4 51. Section 1785.20.5(a) of the CCRAA provides, in relevant part, that “[p]rior to 5 requesting a consumer credit report for employment purposes, the user of the report shall provide
6 written notice to the person involved. The notice shall inform the person that a report will be
7 used, and shall identify the specific basis under subdivision (a) of Section 1024.5 of the Labor
8 Code for use of the report. The notice shall also inform the person of the source of the report...”

9 52. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that for the relevant
10 time periods described herein, Defendants have, at times, obtained and used information in 11 consumer reports to conduct background checks on prospective and existing employees without 12 providing proper notice informing Plaintiff and Class Members of the source of the reports and 13 without supplying the name and address of the consumer credit reporting agency making the 14 report, as required by California Civil Code section 1785.20.5(b), among other things.

15 53. Plaintiff is informed and believes that as a result of the above, Defendants have, at 16 times, willfully violated the strict disclosure and authorization requirements under the CCRAA.

17 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants' conduct in violation of Section
18 1785.1, et seq. of the CCRAA was and is willful and/or grossly negligent. Defendants acted in 19 deliberate or reckless disregard of their obligations and the rights of applicants and employees,
20 including Plaintiff and Class Members.

21 55. Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members, without limitation, seek some 22 of the available remedies pursuant to, without limitation, California Civil Code section 1785.31.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

24 | 56. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all causes of action contained herein.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, on behalf of Plaintiff and all others similarly situated, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

28 A. An order certifying this case as a Class Action;

- 1 B. An Order appointing Plaintiff as Class representative and appointing Plaintiff's 2 counsel as class counsel;
3 C. Punitive damages;
4 D. Statutory penalties;
5 E. Declaratory relief;
6 F. Interest;
7 G. For an order awarding reasonable attorneys' fees and the costs of suit herein, 8 including but not limited to an award of attorneys' fees and costs ; and 9 H. For such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/seithelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/seithelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE! The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case.

AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la Información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. 1 Plaintiff Tony Nunley, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, alleges as
2 follows:

3 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. This is a Class Action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382 against
6 Cardinal Logistics Management Corporation, a North Carolina corporation, and any of its
7 respective subsidiaries or affiliated companies (“Cardinal”), and Robert Sheerin (“Sheerin” and 8 collectively with DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below, “Defendants”) on behalf of
9 Plaintiff and all other current, former, or prospective employees of Defendants (“Class Members”)
10 for, among other things, alleged violations of the Fair Credit Reporting Act (“FCRA”) and similar 11 California laws.

12 PARTIES

13 A. Plaintiff

14 2. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At all relevant times herein,
15 Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants employed Plaintiff
16 with duties that included, but were not limited to, driving and delivering appliances. Plaintiff
17 applied for work with Defendants in or around February of 2021 and stopped working for 18 Defendants in or around October of 2021.

19 3. Plaintiff is a natural person, and at all times relevant to this Complaint was a
20 “consumer” as defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act, at 15 U.S.C. § 1681a, the Investigative
21 Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (“ICRAA”), at Civ. Code § 1786.2(b) and the Consumer
22 Credit Reporting Agencies Act (“CCRAA”) at Civ. Code §1785.3(b).

23 B. Defendants

24 4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Cardinal is, and 25 at all times relevant hereto was, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the 26 laws of the State of North Carolina and doing business in the County of San Bernardino, State of
27 California. Plaintiff is further informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Cardinal
28 provided Plaintiff with a purported background check disclosure and authorization forms and/or

1 requested, among other things, Plaintiff and other Class Members' consumer reports.

2 5. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that defendant Sheerin
3 is, and at all times relevant hereto was, an individual residing in California, as well as an
4 Operations Manager for Cardinal, and DOES 1 through 100, as further defined below

5 6. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants are “persons” as those terms are 6 defined under the FCRA at 15 U.S.C. § 1681a(b), under the ICRAA at Civ. Code § 1786.2(a) and
7 under the CCRAA at Civ. Code § 1785.3(j).

8 7. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 9 otherwise, of defendants sued herein as DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are currently unknown to
10 Plaintiff, who therefore sues defendants by such fictitious names under Code of Civil Procedure
11 section 474. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that each of the 12 defendants designated herein as DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the unlawful acts
13 referred to herein. Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true
14 names and capacities of the defendants designated hereinafter as DOES when such identities
15 become known. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that each defendant
16 acted in all respects pertinent to this action, as the agent of the other defendant(s), carried out a
17 joint scheme, business plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and the acts of each
18 defendant are legally attributable to the other defendants. Whenever, heretofore or hereinafter,
19 reference is made to "Defendants," it shall include Cardinal and any of their parent, subsidiary, or 20 affiliated companies within the State of California, as well as Sheerin and DOES 1 through 100
21 identified herein.

JOINT LIABILITY ALLEGATIONS

23 8. All of the acts and conduct described herein of each and every corporate defendant
24 was duly authorized, ordered, and directed by the respective and collective defendant corporate
25 employers, and the officers and management-level employees of said corporate employers. In 26 addition thereto, said corporate employers participated in the aforementioned acts and conduct of 27 their said employees, agents, and representatives, and each of them; and upon completion of the
28 aforesaid acts and conduct of said corporate employees, agents, and representatives, the defendant

1 corporation respectively and collectively ratified, accepted the benefits of, condoned, lauded,
2 acquiesced, authorized, and otherwise approved of each and all of the said acts and conduct of the
3 aforementioned corporate employees, agents and representatives.

4 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' policies regarding the
5 disclosures, authorizations, background checks, and consumer reports mentioned herein were done
6 for the benefit of all Defendants, and at times, expressly named such Defendants in said
7 disclosures, authorizations, background checks, and consumer reports. As a result of the 8 aforementioned facts, Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that 9 Defendants, and each of them, are jointly liable for the violations that form the basis of this 10 complaint.

11 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12 10. Jurisdiction exists in the Superior Court of the State of California pursuant to Code
13 of Civil Procedure section 410.10. On information and belief, the defendants or some of them
14 reside in San Bernardino County. Defendant Cardinal Logistics Management Corporation is, and 15 at all times mentioned in this complaint has been, a North Carolina corporation, authorized to do
16 business in California, with no designated principal place of business in California identified in its 17 statement filed with the Secretary of State. As such, venue is proper in San Bernadino County
18 pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure section 395.

19 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

20 11. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges that, without
21 limitation, in or about January of 2021 Defendants purported to provide consumer report
22 disclosures and requested from Plaintiff authorization(s) to procure consumer reports and
23 background checks for purposes of employment.

24 12. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that, without limitation,
25 in approximately July of 2019 and again in or about February of 2020, Defendants procured a
26 consumer report about Plaintiff as part of an employment background screening without providing 27 Plaintiff with the proper disclosures and without proper authorization in compliance with the law.
28 ///

1 13. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants did not
 2 provide legally compliant disclosure and authorization forms to Plaintiff and Class Members as
 3 they contained, without limitation, a “clear and conspicuous” disclosure, in a document that
 4 consists solely of the disclosure, that “clearly and accurately” disclosed that a consumer report
 5 may be obtained for employment purposes; that was authorized in writing the procurement of the 6 report, in violation of 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681b(b)(2)(A) and 1681d(a). Specifically, Plaintiff is
 7 informed and believes the disclosures did not comply as a result of, without limitation: including
 8 superfluous information within the disclosure, such as, among other things, identifying 9 information of a third party consumer reporting agency, which was not the reporting agency used
 10 to obtain or procure the consumer report for Plaintiff and Class Members, and extraneous
 11 information relating to various state disclosure requirements; burying the disclosures with small 12 font in a lengthy employment package with dense text that contains extraneous information;
 13 failing to obtain proper authorization before procuring a consumer report, including by either
 14 obtaining consumer reports without authorization or when such authorization had expired;
 15 including a liability waiver in the same document as the disclosure before procuring a consumer
 16 report; including a purported authorization for third parties to release information about Plaintiff
 17 and other Class Members to Defendant, that is different from an authorization for the Defendant to 18 procure a consumer report; and by failing to provide, before a consumer report was obtained, a
 19 summary of Plaintiff and Class Members’ rights under 15 U.S.C. § 1681m(a)(3), among other 20 things.

21 14. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that Defendants did not
 22 provide legally compliant disclosure and authorization forms to Plaintiff and Class Members as a
 23 result of, without limitation, Defendants failing to make a “clear and conspicuous” disclosure in 24 writing to Plaintiff and Class Members at any time before the report is or was procured or caused
 25 to be made in a document that consists solely of the disclosure, that: identified the name, address,
 26 and telephone number of the investigative consumer reporting agency conducting the investigation
 27 in violation of Civ. Code § 1786.16; notified Plaintiff and Class Members in writing of the nature
 28 and scope of the investigation requested, including a summary of the provisions of Civ. Code §

1 1786.22; and notified Plaintiff and Class Members of the internet web site of the investigative
2 consumer reporting agency, or, if the agency had no internet web site address, the telephone
3 number of the agency where Plaintiff and Class Members may find information about the
4 investigative reporting agency's privacy practices, including whether Plaintiff and Class
5 Member's personal information will be sent outside of the United States or its territories and
6 information that complies with subdivision (d) of Section 1786.22, among other things.

7 15. Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that
8 Defendants routinely acquire consumer, investigative and/or consumer credit reports (referred to 9 collectively as "background checks") to conduct background checks as described herein on 10 Plaintiff and other prospective, current and former employees and use information from the 11 background checks without providing proper disclosures and obtaining proper authorization in 12 compliance with the law, including Civil Code § 1785.1, et seq. (the "Consumer Credit Reporting
13 Agencies Act" or the "CCRAA").

14 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

15 16. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of Plaintiff and all others similarly situated, as 16 a class action pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 382. Plaintiff seeks to represent a class
17 of all current, former, and prospective employees of Defendants who applied for a job with 18 Defendants and a background check was performed beginning five (5) years preceding the filing
19 of Plaintiff's complaint up until the date that final judgment is entered in this action (collectively
20 referred to as "Class Members").

21 17. Plaintiff reserves the right under California Rule of Court rule 3.765, subdivision
22 (b) to amend or modify the class description with greater specificity or further division into 23 subclasses or limitation to particular issues.

24 18. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
25 under the provisions of Code of Civil Procedure section 382 because there is a well-defined
26 community of interest in the litigation and the proposed Class is easily ascertainable.

27 ///

28 ///

1 A. Numerosity

2 19. The potential Class Members as defined are so numerous that joinder of all the
3 members of the Class is impracticable. While the precise number of Class Members has not been
4 determined yet, Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are at least seventy-five (75) Class
5 Members within the State of California alone.

6 20. Accounting for employee turnover during the relevant periods necessarily increases
7 this number substantially. Plaintiff alleges Defendants' employment records would provide 8 information as to the number and location of all Class Members. Joinder of all members of the 9 proposed Class is not practicable.

10 B. Commonality

11 21. There are questions of law and fact common to Class Members. These common 12 questions include, but are not limited to:

- 13 (a) Whether Defendants failed to comply with the requirements of the FCRA
14 under 15 U.S.C. § 1681, et seq., including by failing to include the proper
15 disclosures and proper authorizations required by law?
- 16 (b) Whether Defendants failed to comply with the requirements of the ICRAA
17 under California Civil Code section 1786, et seq., including by failing to 18 include the proper disclosures and proper authorizations required by law?
- 19 (c) Whether Defendants failed to comply with the requirements of the 20 Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act under California Civil Code
21 section 1785.1, et seq., including by failing to include the proper disclosures
22 and proper authorizations required by law?
- 23 (d) Whether Defendants willfully failed to comply with the FCRA?

24 C. Typicality

25 22. The claims of Plaintiff herein alleged are typical of those claims which could be
26 alleged by any Class Members, and the relief sought is typical of the relief which would be sought
27 by each Class Member in separate actions. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereupon
28 alleges that Defendants had and/or have a policy or practice which resulted in Defendants failing

1 to comply with the FCRA, ICRAA, and the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act as alleged
2 herein.

D. Adequacy of Representation

4 23. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interest of Class
5 Members. Counsel who represents Plaintiff is competent and experienced in litigating class
6 actions and has no interests adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of the absent Class
7 Members.

E. Superiority of Class Action

9 24. A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient
10 adjudication of this controversy. Individual joinder of all Class Members is not practicable, and 11 questions of law and fact common to Class Members predominate over any questions affecting 12 only individual Class Members. Class Members, as further described therein, have been subjected
13 to Defendants' illegal policy and/or practices as a result of Defendants' alleged improper
14 disclosures and authorizations.

15 25. Class action treatment will allow those similarly situated to litigate their claims in a
16 manner that is most efficient and economical for the parties and the judicial system. Plaintiff is 17 unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that 18 would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act – Against All Defendants)

21 26. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 22 the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully set forth hereat.

23 | 27. Defendants are “persons” as defined by section 1681a(b) of the FCRA;

24 28. Plaintiff and Class Members are “consumers” within the meaning of Section
25 1681a(c) of the FCRA because they are “individuals.”

26 29. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. section 1681b(b)(2)(A), an employer may not procure, or 27 cause to be procured, consumer reports for employment purposes without providing the 28 [employee] with “a clear and conspicuous disclosure... made in writing... in a document that

1 consists solely of the disclosure that a consumer report may be obtained for employment
2 purposes" and which the consumer has "authorized in writing" the procurement of the report by
3 that person.

4 30. 15 U.S.C. section 1681d(a)(1)(B) further provides that an employer may not
5 procure or cause to be prepared an investigative consumer report on any consumer unless it is
6 "clearly and accurately disclosed to the [employee] that an investigative consumer report... may
7 be made and such disclosure includes a statement informing the consumer of his right to request
8 the additional disclosures provided for under subsection (b) of this section and the written 9 summary of the rights of the consumer prepared pursuant to section 1681g(c) of this title."

10 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that during the 11 relevant time periods alleged herein, Defendants have, at times, obtained and used information in 12 consumer reports to conduct background checks on prospective and existing employees which 13 failed to comply with the requirements under the FCRA because they, among other things,
14 included superfluous information within the disclosure, such as, without limitation, identifying
15 information of a third party consumer reporting agency, which was not the reporting agency used
16 to obtain or procure the consumer report for Plaintiff and Class Members, and extraneous
17 information relating to various state disclosure requirements; buried the disclosures with small
18 font in a lengthy employment package with dense text that contains extraneous information; failed
19 to obtain proper authorization before procuring a consumer report, including by either obtaining 20 consumer reports without authorization or when such authorization had expired; included a
21 liability waiver in the same document as the disclosure before procuring a consumer report;
22 including a purported authorization for third parties to release information about Plaintiff and
23 other Class Members to Defendant, that is different from an authorization for the Defendant to 24 procure a consumer report; and by failing to, before a consumer report was obtained, include a
25 summary of Plaintiff and Class Members' rights under 15 U.S.C. § 1681m(a)(3), among other 26 things.

27 ///

28 ///

1 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants'
2 violations of the FCRA were willful. Defendant knew or should have known about its obligations
3 under the FCRA as a result of the plain language of the statutes.

4 33. Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members, without limitation, seek some
5 of the statutory remedies available under the FCRA.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 (Viol. of the Cal. Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act – Against All Defendants)

8 34. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in 9 the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

10 35. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were current, former, and
11 prospective employees of Defendants covered by the California Investigative Consumer Reporting
12 Agencies Act, California Civil Code section 1786 et seq. (“ICRAA”).

13 36. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Plaintiff and Class Members are 14 "consumers" within the meaning Section 1786.2(b) of the ICRAA, because they are "individuals."

15 37. Section 1786.2(c) of the ICRAA defines an “investigative consumer report” as “a
16 consumer report in which information on a consumer's character, general reputation, personal 17 characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through any means.”

18 38. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants obtained background checks
19 from Plaintiff and Class Members, which qualify as an “investigative consumer report” under the 20 ICRAA.

21 39. Section 1786.16(a)(2) of the ICRAA provides, in relevant part, that “[i]f, at any 22 time, an investigative consumer report is sought for employment purposes... the person seeking 23 the investigative consumer report may procure the report, or cause the report to be made, only if
24 all of the following apply:

25 “(A) The person procuring or causing the report to be made has a permissible purpose, as defined in Section 1786.12.

27 (B) The person procuring or causing the report to be made provides a clear and 28 conspicuous disclosure in writing to the consumer at any time before the report is procured or caused to be made in a document that consists solely of the

1 disclosure..." that, among other things, an investigative report may be obtained;
2 identifies the name, address, and telephone number of the investigative consumer
3 reporting agency conducting the investigation; notifies the consumer in writing of 4 the nature of the scope of the investigation, including a summary of the provision
5 of section 1786.22; and notifies the consumer of the internet website address of 6 the investigative consumer reporting agency or the address, the telephone number of the agency, where the consumer may find information about the investigative reporting agency's privacy practices, including whether the consumer's personal information will be sent outside of the United States or its territories and information that complies with subdivision (d) of section 1786.20.

7 (C) The consumer has authorized in writing the procurement of the report.

8 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that the plain language
9 of the statute indicates that the inclusion of extraneous information in a disclosure form violates
10 the disclosure and authorization requirements of the ICRAA, because such a form would not
11 consist "solely" of the disclosure and that the notice provided be "clear and conspicuous."
12 Additionally, section 1786.16 requires that the consumer authorize in writing the procurement of 13 the report.

41. Plaintiff is informed and believes that during the relevant time periods alleged herein, Defendants have, at times, failed to make a "clear and conspicuous" disclosure in writing to Plaintiff and Class Members at any time before the report is or was procured or caused to be made in a document that consists solely of the disclosure, that: identified the name, address, and telephone number of the investigative consumer reporting agency conducting the investigation;
notified Plaintiff and Class Members in writing of the nature and scope of the investigation
requested, including a summary of the provisions of Civ. Code § 1786.22; and notified Plaintiff and Class Members of the internet web site of the investigative consumer reporting agency, or, if the agency had no internet web site address, the telephone number of the agency where Plaintiff
and Class Members may find information about the investigative reporting agency's privacy practices, including whether Plaintiff and Class Member's personal information will be sent outside of the United States or its territories and information that complies with subdivision (d) of Section 1786.22, among other things.

27 //

28

1 42. Plaintiff is informed and believes that as a result of the above, Defendants have, at
2 times, willfully violated the strict disclosure and authorization requirements under the California
3 Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act, California Civil Code section 1786, et seq.
4 (“ICRAA”).

5 43. As a result of Defendants' unlawful procurement of background reports by way of 6 its inadequate disclosures and authorizations, as set forth above, Plaintiff and Class Members have
7 been deprived of their consumer rights and prevented from making informed decisions about
8 whether to permit Defendants to obtain their personal information.

9 44. Plaintiff is informed and believes that as a result of the above, Defendants have, at 10 times, willfully violated the strict disclosure and authorization requirements under the ICRAA.

11 45. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants' conduct in violation of Section 1786,
12 et seq. of the ICRAA was and is willful and/or grossly negligent. Defendants acted in deliberate
13 or reckless disregard of their obligations and the rights of applicants and employees, including 14 Plaintiff and Class Members.

15 46. Plaintiff, on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members, among other things, seek some 16 of the available remedies pursuant to, without limitation, California Civil Code section 1786.50.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

18 (Violation of the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act – Against All Defendants)

19 | 47. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in
20 | the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.

21 48. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Class Members were employees or former
22 employees of Defendants covered by the Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies Act, California
23 Civil Code section 1785.1, et seq. (“CCRAA”).

24 49. Section 1785.3(c) of the ICRAA defines “consumer credit report” as “[a]ny written,
25 oral, or other communication or any information by a consumer credit reporting agency bearing on 26 a consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity, which is used or is expected to
27 be used, or collected in whole or in part, for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the 28 consumer's eligibility for: ... (2) employment purposes...”

1 50. Plaintiff is informed and believes that the employment background checks procured
2 by Defendants on behalf of Plaintiff and Class Members qualify as consumer credit reports under
3 the CCRAA.

4 51. Section 1785.20.5(a) of the CCRAA provides, in relevant part, that “[p]rior to 5 requesting a consumer credit report for employment purposes, the user of the report shall provide
6 written notice to the person involved. The notice shall inform the person that a report will be
7 used, and shall identify the specific basis under subdivision (a) of Section 1024.5 of the Labor
8 Code for use of the report. The notice shall also inform the person of the source of the report...”

9 52. Plaintiff is informed and believes and based thereon alleges that for the relevant
10 time periods described herein, Defendants have, at times, obtained and used information in 11 consumer reports to conduct background checks on prospective and existing employees without 12 providing proper notice informing Plaintiff and Class Members of the source of the reports and 13 without supplying the name and address of the consumer credit reporting agency making the 14 report, as required by California Civil Code section 1785.20.5(b), among other things.

15 53. Plaintiff is informed and believes that as a result of the above, Defendants have, at 16 times, willfully violated the strict disclosure and authorization requirements under the CCRAA.

17 54. Plaintiff is informed and believes Defendants' conduct in violation of Section
18 1785.1, et seq. of the CCRAA was and is willful and/or grossly negligent. Defendants acted in 19 deliberate or reckless disregard of their obligations and the rights of applicants and employees,
20 including Plaintiff and Class Members.

SERVICE OF THIS ORDER

Plaintiffs' counsel is ordered to serve this Order on counsel for each defendant, or, if counsel is not known, on each defendant within five days of the date of this Order. If the complaint has not been served as the date of this Order, counsel for plaintiff is to serve the summons and complaint along with this Order within ten days of the date of this Order. Failure to serve this order may result in the imposition of monetary sanctions.

THE INITIAL CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

An initial Case Management Conference (CMC) is scheduled for SEP 02 2022 at 9:00 a.m. Counsel may attend the initial CMC either in person or remotely, via CourtCall. Contact CourtCall at (888) 882-6878 (www.CourtCall.com) to schedule your appearance. Audio or video appearances are available. CourtCall may be used for all CMCs, motions, and other hearings. In person attendance is not required at the initial CMC or at subsequent conferences or motions unless specifically ordered by the court.

Counsel for all parties are ordered to attend the initial CMC. If there are defendants who have not yet made a general or special appearance, those parties who are presently before the court may jointly request a continuance of the initial CMC to allow additional time for such non-appearing defendants to make their general or special appearances. Such a request should be made by submitting a Stipulation and Proposed Order to the Court, filed directly in Department S-26 (not in the clerk's office), no later than five court days before the scheduled hearing.

RESPONSIVE PLEADINGS

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, responsive pleadings are due as provided by statute There is no stay on the pleadings or motions pending the initial

1 CMC. If, however, counsel agree to stay formal proceedings to facilitate settlement
2 discussions or for other reasons, each defendant is directed to file either a Notice of 3 General Appearance or a Notice of Special Appearance (if counsel intends to challenge 4 personal jurisdiction). The notices are for purposes of identification of counsel and 5 preparation of a service list. The filing of a Notice of General Appearance is without 6 prejudice to any substantive or procedural challenges to the complaint (including subject 7 matter jurisdiction), without prejudice to any denial or affirmative defense, and without 8 prejudice to the filing of any cross-complaint. The filing of a Notice of Special 9 Appearance is without prejudice to any challenge to the court's exercise of personal 10 jurisdiction.

11 DISCOVERY

12 Unless all counsel agree otherwise, discovery is stayed pending the initial CMC.
13 If the parties agree to conduct discovery in advance of the initial CMC, commencement 14 of discovery is governed by statute.

15 AGENDA FOR THE INITIAL CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

16 Counsel for all parties are ordered to meet and confer in person no later than 17 fourteen days before the initial CMC to discuss the subjects listed below. Counsel 18 must be fully prepared to discuss these subjects with the court:

- 19 1. Any issues of recusal or disqualification;
20 2. Any potentially dispositive or important threshold issues of law or fact that, if 21 considered by the court, may simplify or further resolution of the case;
22 3. Appropriate mechanisms for Alternative Dispute Resolution;

23

25

26

27

28

4. A plan for the preservation of evidence and a uniform system for the identification of documents to be used throughout the course of this litigation, including discovery and trial;
 5. A discovery plan for the disclosure and production of documents and other discovery, including whether the court should order automatic disclosures, patterned on Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) or otherwise;
 6. Whether it is advisable to conduct discovery in phases so that information needed to conduct meaningful ADR is obtained early in the case;
 7. Any issues involving the protection of evidence and confidentiality;
 8. The use and selection of an electronic service provider;
 9. The handling of any potential publicity issues;
 10. Any other issues counsel deem appropriate to address with the court.

THE JOINT REPORT

Counsel are ordered to meet and confer, in person or by telephone or video conference, and to prepare a joint report for the initial cmc, to be filed directly in department s-26 (not in the clerk's office), no later than four court days before the conference date. Separate reports from each party are not allowed. Judicial council form CMC statements are not allowed.

The joint report must include the following:

1. Whether the case should or should not be treated as complex;
 2. Whether additional parties are likely to be added and a proposed date by which all parties must be served:

3. A service list (the service list should identify all primary and secondary counsel, firm names, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, and fax numbers for all counsel.)
 4. Whether the court should issue an order requiring electronic service. Counsel should advise the court regarding any preferred web-based electronic service provider;
 5. Whether any issues of jurisdiction or venue exist that might affect this court's ability to proceed with this case.
 6. Whether there are applicable arbitration agreements, and the parties' views on their enforceability;
 7. A list of all related litigation pending in this or other courts (state and federal), a brief description of any such litigation, including the name of the judge assigned to the case, and a statement whether any additional related litigation is anticipated;
 8. A description of the major factual and legal issues in the case. The parties should address any contracts, statutes, or regulations on which claims or defenses are based, or which will require interpretation in adjudicating the claims and defenses;
 9. The parties' tentative views on an ADR mechanism and how such mechanism might be integrated into the course of the litigation;
 10. A discovery plan, including the time needed to conduct discovery and whether discovery should be conducted in phases or limited (and, if so, the order of phasing or types of limitations). With respect to the discovery of electronically stored information (ESI), the plan should include:

- 1 a. Identification of the Information Management Systems used by the parties;
- 2 b. The location and custodians of information that is likely to be subject to
- 3 production (including the identification of network and email servers and
- 4 hard-drives maintained by custodians);
- 5 c. The types of ESI that will be requested and produced, e.g. data files,
- 6 emails, etc.;
- 7 d. The format in which ESI will be produced;
- 8 e. Appropriate search criteria for focused requests.
- 9 f. A statement whether the parties will allow their respective IT consultants
- 10 or employees to participate directly in the meet and confer process.
- 11 11. Whether the parties will stipulate that discovery stays or other stays entered by
- 12 the court for case management purposes will be excluded in determining the
- 13 statutory period for bringing the case to trial under Code of Civil Procedure
- 14 Section 583.310 (the Five Year Rule).
- 15 12. Recommended dates and times for the following:
- 16 a. The next CMC (absent special circumstances, the court typically
- 17 schedules the next CMC approximately six to eight months out);
- 18 b. A schedule for any contemplated ADR;
- 19 c. A filing deadline (and proposed briefing schedule) for any anticipated
- 20 non-discovery motions.
- 21 d. With respect to class actions, the parties' tentative views on an
- 22 appropriate deadline for a class certification motion to be filed.
- 23
- 24
- 25
- 26
- 27
- 28

1 To the extent the parties are unable to agree on any matter to be addressed in 2 the Joint Report, the positions of each party or of various parties should be set forth
3 separately. The parties are encouraged to propose, either jointly or separately, any 4 approaches to case management that they believe will promote the fair and efficient 5 handling of this case.

7 Any stipulations to continue conferences or other hearings throughout this 8 litigation must be filed with the court directly in Department S-26 (not in the Clerk's office), no later than five court days before the conference or hearing date.

10

JOINT REPORTS FOR SUBSEQUENT CONFERENCES

11

12 Counsel must submit a joint report for each conference after the initial CMC. The 13 report should address how the case has moved forward since the last conference, what 14 needs to be accomplished in the future, and how the court can assist the parties move
15 the case towards resolution. As with the initial report, subsequent reports are to be filed 16 directly in department S-26 (not in the clerk's office), no later than four court days before 17 the conference date.
18

19

INFORMAL DISCOVERY CONFERENCES

20

21 Motions concerning discovery cannot be filed without first requesting an informal 22 discovery conference (IDC) with the court. Making a request for an IDC automatically
23 stays the deadline for filing any such motion. IDCs are conducted by remote video 24 conference, using Zoom. If counsel's computer (or other device) does not have 25 camera capability, an audio-only option is available. Video appearance at the IDC, 26 however, is encouraged. In-person attendance at the IDC is permissible only if all 27 counsel are appearing in person. The Court will provide a link to join the remote 28 conference at the appointed time. Please provide Department S-26's Judicial Assistant

1 ((909) 521-3519) or Court Attendant ((909) 708-8866) with an e-mail address. No
2 briefing is allowed for the IDC, but counsel (either jointly or separately) should lodge
3 (not file) a one page statement of the issues in dispute in Department S-26 no later than 4 the day before the IDC.
